

November 30, 2011

Elmira Mutual Marks 135th Year, Still Growing

SPRINGFIELD – Elmira Mutual Insurance Company was recently recognized by the Illinois Association of Mutual Insurance Companies (IAMIC). The Executive Director of IAMIC attended the Board of Directors meeting on November 16, 2011 to present a certificate to the staff.

Having reached this mark, this company continues to grow, serving 13 counties in the state of Illinois and has been serving the community since 1876. Today, Elmira counts 389 policyholders in its family of clientele.

Elmira's current roster includes Manager John Leezer, President John L. Lane, Vice-President Stephen R. Winslow, Board members James W. Young, Brian Ely, Christopher McMillen, Robin Nowlan, Dale D. Endress, Ronald M. Musselman, and Mark Wilson. Office staff includes Claims Adjuster Rick L. Heaton, Administrative Assistant Ruth E. Lang and Assistant Julie I. Wilson.

The Illinois Association of Mutual Insurance Companies is a trade association comprised of farm mutual insurance companies. Mutual insurance, like the farming industry, has been a part of the Illinois landscape for well over a century. IAMIC provides member companies with the educational opportunities, professional development, legislative support, and industry recognition they need to move forward into the next century.